

Community Outreach Adviser Volunteer

About the role.

Citizens Advice Woking is looking for Community Outreach Volunteers to help us take free, independent and confidential advice directly into local communities.

As part of our Canalside Community Advice Project, you'll support our Outreach Adviser in delivering advice sessions in trusted community settings, helping local people access the support they need. You'll play an important role in making our service welcoming and accessible, particularly for residents who may face barriers such as language, digital exclusion or a lack of confidence in accessing services.

This is a fantastic opportunity to make a real difference while gaining valuable skills, experience and accredited training.

What will you do?

You will work alongside our Outreach Adviser to:

- Welcome clients and help them feel comfortable accessing the service.
- Explain what support is available and what will happen during their appointment.
- Help people complete basic forms where appropriate.
- Support community engagement activities and promote Citizens Advice within local neighbourhoods.
- Assist with interpreting or communication where appropriate (following training).

- Signpost people to relevant local services and activities.
- Help gather feedback from local residents to improve our services.
- Maintain confidentiality and follow Citizens Advice policies and procedures.
- Complete any basic administration linked to outreach sessions.

What's in it for you?

As a Community Outreach Volunteer you will:

- Gain valuable experience supporting local people.
- Develop communication, teamwork and community engagement skills.
- Receive accredited Community Interpreter training.
- Improve your confidence and employability.
- Meet new people and become part of a supportive team.
- Help reduce poverty and improve access to advice within your community.

And we'll reimburse expenses too.

What do you need to have?

- We are particularly seeking volunteers who can speak Urdu, Hindi, Punjabi or Gujarati to help us provide accessible advice and better support our diverse local community.
